Columbia Street, Fairview

Discover this redbrick-linked detached house with No Onward Chain, ideally located just a short stroll from the town centre and popular Pittville Park.

The property features three spacious bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a kitchen/breakfast room. Enjoy the benefits of an enclosed garden with side access, gas central heating, and double glazing throughout.

The property offers well-appointed accommodation across two floors. Two staircases lead to the first-floor landing, which features three spacious bedrooms, a bathroom, and a separate shower room.

On the ground floor, you are welcomed by an entrance hall leading to a living room, a separate dining room, a fitted kitchen/breakfast room, a separate reception room (ideal for those wanting an office or additional downstairs bedroom), and there is a convenient downstairs shower room.

This redbrick terraced property offers many period features, including exposed wooden floorboards and feature fireplaces. Further benefits include gas-fired central heating and double glazing.

Fairview is a pretty area situated between Pittville and the town centre. According to maps in Cheltenham Library, Fairview was part of an expansion of the town onto former farmland in the early nineteenth century. Much of its housing is a mix of late Regency and Victorian. Fairview also boasts the fantastic Kemble Brewery Inn pub which is positioned on Fairview Street and is a local's favourite.

All information regarding the property details, including a position on Freehold, will be confirmed between the seller and purchaser solicitors.
