The interiors are equally charming, having been renovated to the most exemplary specifications throughout whilst also remaining sympathetic to the heritage of the building, showcasing a plethora of magnificent original features. Constructed in 1923 for the Holt family who owned the Blue Funnel Shipping Line, Tudor Gate promises to make an exceptional and incomparable forever home for an extremely lucky family.

Certain to impress even the most discerning of buyers, the kitchen is complete with a range of stylish fitted base and wall units, a spectacular centre island providing plentiful worktop space and a selection of sleek integrated appliances. This flows seamlessly into an orangery to the rear which is awash with natural light, providing a delightful additional sitting area where views of the garden can be enjoyed. From the kitchen you are guided into the first of three spacious reception rooms, each impeccably finished in a tasteful décor and featuring eye-catching original fireplaces. The formal dining room provides the perfect setting for sharing mealtimes and entertaining guests, leading through to a sitting room which offers a welcoming and elegant setting to relax and unwind. The third reception room features an opulent bar area which is certain to be the envy of guests and a unique addition to dinner parties. Exiting this room you will find yourself at the imposing inner hallway where a convenient WC concludes the extensive ground floor.

Ascending the ornate original staircase to the first floor you will continue to be in awe. From the gallery landing you will discover three generously sized double bedrooms each immaculately presented in keeping with the grandeur of the ground floor, with the master and second bedroom enjoying the added luxury of deluxe ensuite facilities. There is a stunning dressing room bathed in light courtesy of a walk-in bay window, along with a striking family bathroom suite featuring a roll-top bathtub. The remaining two substantial double bedrooms are located at the pinnacle of the property on the second floor, both finished to an excellent standard and benefitting from ensuite shower rooms, and adding the finishing touch to this extraordinary home is a well-equipped utility room.

Further enhancing Tudor Gate are the breathtaking grounds that surround it, providing the ultimate outdoor space for the whole household to enjoy. Vast and meticulously maintained laid-to-lawn areas provide ample room for recreational activities, and when it comes to al-fresco dining there is an array of serene spots to choose from including a patio area complete with outdoor kitchen and bar which is sure to be at the centre of al-fresco entertaining events.
