A magnificent two bedroom flat of very pleasing character comprising the majority of the ground floor of a handsome detached Edwardian house with private front and back garden, enviably located directly opposite the Saffrons Cricket Ground. The flat has its own private entrance that opens into a splendid 17' x 14' reception hall with part timbered walls, inglenook style fireplace and a casement door that leads to a small patio with the lawned garden beyond. The 24' x 18' living room also has an attractive fireplace surround and delightful views over The Saffrons and the front garden that is private to the flat. Both double bedrooms are of a good size and are served by the luxuriously appointed and spacious bathroom with a roll-top bath with ball and claw feet and an open shower cubicle that is ideal for those with mobility issues. The kitchen is fully fitted with integrated oven, hob, fridge/freezer, washing machine and dishwasher.. Other features include parquet flooring, attractive panelled internal doors and the flat is being sold with the benefit of a garage and additional off road parking. The gardens are an important feature with the secluded and enclosed front garden affording a southerly aspect and the rear garden extending to some 60' with a very useful cabin/home office, with light and power. Enjoying a highly desirable and convenient location, the town centre and railway station are within a few hundred yards, whilst the seafront is little more than a half mile level walking distance.
