A well appointed three bedroom semi-detached house in the favoured Old Town area, taking advantage of its elevated position with most of the principal rooms affording glorious views over Eastbourne to the sea. The well proportioned accommodation comprises a 23' dual aspect through living room, cloakroom/wc and kitchen on the ground floor. The kitchen has been recently re-fitted with a comprehensive range of modern wall and base units beneath contoured work surfaces together with integrated appliances that include an oven, ceramic hob, dishwasher and microwave. The three good size bedrooms are served by a modern bathroom. Of particular note is the under house garden room which could be further developed into additional accommodation or a home/office. The house is set within delightful gardens that are principally laid to lawn with mature trees and shrubs together with a productive kitchen garden.
