PROPERTY DESCRIPTION BY Mr Wayne Turpin

With nearly 2200 square feet of accommodation and set in just over 0.2 of an acre, 7 Saddlers Mews is a beautifully finished and presented family home. Presented in show home condition throughout and with three reception rooms and five double bedrooms with two having en-suite shower facilities, the house neatly combines a traditional style with elements modernity. The kitchen/breakfast room is spacious enough to accommodate a dining table and a sofa, whilst the clean lines and granite surfaces normally with the modern style, juxtapose well with the Range cooker to develop a comfortable, rural feel. The build and finish quality is of an excellent standard, stone tiled floor provides a luxurious feel whilst the pressurised water system, body jet showers. The garden compliments this excellent family home professional landscaped to encourage outside entertaining. A two bay garage with steps leading to a large loft area and sizeable drive provides excellent parking. No Chain

Fyfield is a rural village which is located approximately 5 miles to the west of Andover and is influenced by a range of factors which contribute to its appeal. The village contains a strong community which congregates regularly for a number of village events, to provides good access to key road and rail commuting routes and a range of sporting/recreational pursuits can be found within the locality. There is an excellent selection of schools in the area: local preparatory schools include Farleigh and Rookwood whilst the state sector provides a number of good local primary schools as well as the Wellington Academy near Tidworth and Peter Symonds Sixth Form College in Winchester. The countryside immediately beyond the village contains a network of footpaths and bridleways which can be accessed without having to get into the car and which are perfect for exercising dogs, horses and children. Winchester, Salisbury and Marlborough are all within easy reach of the house and provide wider access to the arts whilst day trips to the beaches or sailing centres on the south coast are also perfectly feasible.
