In an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty amidst the North Wessex Downs and the Test Valley, Hurstbourne Tarrant is a popular rural village. The village is home to the well recommended George and Dragon public house, as well as Essebourne Manor Hotel and a tea room, excellent array of schools . Hurstbourne Tarrant Church of England Primary School is well regarded and there is also a Community Hall and St Peters Church in the village. Surrounding the village is open countryside. A more comprehensive range of leisure, recreational and educational facilities are available in Andover, Newbury, Basingstoke and Winchester. The village is also well located with a mainline station at Newbury & Andover, approximately 6 miles away which provides a fast service to London Waterloo & Paddington. The A34, the A303 and the M4 are within easy reach.
