The Laurels is located within the small hamlet of Smannell which boasts a Church and a primary school. The hamlet is surrounded by glorious countryside and yet is well placed for amenities with Andover being a comprehensive centre with a range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities as well as excellent rail services to Waterloo, only two miles north-east of Smannell. Alternatively, Newbury is 15 miles north and provides a service to London Paddington. The A34 and A303 roads, as well as M3 and M4 motorways are all accessible. The area offers a wide selection of well-regarded schooling (private and state), including Farleigh Preparatory School which is a short drive away. Salisbury offers Grammar schools, Godolphin, Chaffyn Grove and the Cathedral School whilst Winchester offers Peter Symonds Sixth Form College, Winchester College and St. Swithun's. Newbury and its surrounds boast Downe House, St. Gabriels, Horris Hill, Cheam, Bradfield College and Elstree. There is excellent fishing on the River Test locally and golf courses in Longstock as well as two in Andover. Polo is at Tidworth and racing at Newbury and Salisbury.
