PROPERTY DESCRIPTION BY Mr Guy Sommerville

Charming extended detached family home situated in a peaceful cul-de-sac, this delightful older-style extended detached family home offers spacious and versatile accommodation, with scope for further extension and improvement, subject to the relevant permissions. The ground floor comprises a sitting room with a large window to the front and French doors opening onto the rear garden, allowing for plenty of natural light. A study at the front of the house provides a useful space for home working. The kitchen is fitted with beautifully appointed units and granite worktops, complimented by a separate utility room. A generous family room with patio doors leads directly to the patio and mature rear garden. A downstairs bathroom completes the ground floor accommodation. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a separate toilet. The property is set within mature gardens, with the front featuring established plant and shrub beds alongside a neatly kept lawn. A driveway provides off-road parking and leads to a covered carport. The mature rear garden offers a patio seating area, an array of plants and trees, and a peaceful outdoor space to enjoy. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this fantastic family home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to make their own mark in a sought-after and convenient location.

The property is quietly situated in a well-established and highly regarded Close within walking distance of the town centre which offers comprehensive educational and leisure facilities including a theatre, new leisure centre and College of High Education as well as a mainline railway station providing fast access to Waterloo in just over one hour. There is easy access to the A303 for London and the West Country and also to Winchester and Newbury via the A34. The cathedral city of Salisbury is about 18 miles and Southampton about 30 miles.
