Charlton

The village of Charlton is located on the outskirts of Andover, which has a post office, stores, church and public house. The town of Andover has a comprehensive range of educational, leisure and shopping facilities and a mainline railway station (within a 10/15 minute walk) to London Waterloo in about an hour. The A303 provides excellent road communications to the West Country and London via the M3 motorway. Charlton Lakes are situated close at hand and offer a range of outdoor leisure facilities including mini golf and pedalos, and the lakeside pavilion also provides refreshments with an indoor and outdoor seating area.
