Tregony

Tregony is known as the gateway to the Roseland Peninsula. This is an area of outstanding natural beauty with much National Trust property, and a wealth of beaches, coastal features, fishing villages, lovely countryside and sailing facilities. Tregony was once a thriving port on the River Fal before it silted up. Today it is flourishing again with many interesting old buildings, Church, excellent senior and junior schools, two doctors' surgeries, dentist, hairdresser, Public House and a range of shops and facilities along its wide main street, including a mini-market and post office. Despite its rural location, Tregony remains well connected with a regular bus service to Truro, Probus and St Mawes. The City of Truro, the commercial centre of Cornwall lies some 8 miles away and offers an extensive range of retail facilities together with private schooling and a main line rail connection to London, Paddington.

Cornwall

Cornwall has been enjoying a renaissance, especially post COVID-19 lockdown. The Duchy offers a range of accessible attractions such as the Eden Project, the National Maritime Museum, the Lost Gardens of Heligan, and the Tate Gallery. The Cathedral City of Truro is the main financial and commercial centre of Cornwall. It has a fine range of stores, private schools, college and the main hospital in the county (RCH Trelliske). Both Falmouth University and Cornwall Airport at Newquay are rapidly expanding. Fine dining Michelin star and celebrity chef restaurants are in abundance, including Rick Stein (Padstow), Nathan Outlaw (Port Isaac), and Paul Ainsworth (Padstow and Rock). Rising stars on The Roseland are Paul Green at the Driftwood, Rosevine and Matt Haggath at the Idle Rocks, St Mawes.

A Brief Tour

Priory Meadow is accessed off a quiet lane via its own private gravelled driveway opening up into a spacious parking and turning area.

The front door opens into the entrance hall with doors leading off to the WC and spacious living room. The 26' living room is a light and sunny room with dual aspect windows looking out over the garden and to the countryside beyond, as well as a door leading out to the patio area and garden. The living room also benefits from fitted, floor to ceiling shelving at one end of the room, and a slate fireplace and hearth. A door leads off to the dining room which has triple, deep-shelved storage cupboards and a part glazed door to the kitchen. The kitchen has a range of wall and floor cupboards with work surfaces over, and has dual aspect windows. There are currently 3 / 4 bedrooms, with two good sized doubles, a single bedroom and a potential further single bedroom. The family bathroom is equipped with a bath with shower over, WC and sink unit, as well as a large shelved airing cupboard with hot water tank.

Outside, the garden wraps around the property on three sides, and is flanked by mature hedges and fencing, offering privacy and seclusion. An 18ft block-built workshop / outbuilding offers great potential for conversion to a self-contained studio (subject to necessary permissions). The gardens are predominantly laid to lawn for ease of maintenance with a generous sun terrace directly off the living room.

While Priory Meadow is in a fair, liveable condition, it would benefit from modernisation and offers buyers the opportunity to put their own stamp on the property. Alternatively, the plot is a generous size of circa half an acre and could offer development potential (subject to relevant planning consents).
