Boat moorings, beaches, village amenities and a large car park are all nearby. The Cottage has been maintained to a high standard with plenty of character and charm, including feature fireplace, stripped wood floors and open beamed ceilings. Brackley Cottage is for sale fully furnished and including all the contents except some personal items. This is a rare opportunity and would suit a second home or investment buyer as well as a permanent home buyer.

The entrance porch leads into the charming sitting room with feature open fireplace with alcoves and cupboards each side and also a beamed ceiling. It has a double-glazed sash window and window seat with views over the harbour and quay. A door leads into the kitchen fitted with a range of shaker style units and a dining area with space for a table and chairs. To the side is a small outside yard.

Stairs lead up to a small landing with doors leading to the bedrooms, shower room and washroom / wc. Bedroom one, to the front, has fitted cupboards and wardrobes and stunning views across the beach and harbour allowing you to wake up to the sound and sight of the sea. The second bedroom has a built-in cabin-style bed with cupboard over.

The village is centred round its quaint harbour, its own beaches and Castle. It has a good wide range of amenities, which are open all year, including butcher, bakers, convenience store, post office / newsagent, doctors, hairdresser, dentist, pharmacy, village hall, church, delicatessen and clothing shops including Fat Face. The village also has two public houses, and an excellent range of cafes, restaurants, art galleries, gift and ice cream shops.

St Mawes has long been one of the West Country's more desirable and exclusive destinations, with Olga Polizzi's Hotel Tresanton and the recently re-modelled Idle Rocks Hotel both luring the rich and famous. The village has superbly varied and accessible sailing waters and an active sailing club with a full programme of village regattas, club races and various national championships to cater for all ages. There is an all year round pedestrian ferry service to and from Falmouth and a seasonal ferry runs to Place, providing access to the scenic walks on the National Trust owned St Anthony Headland.
