A photograph of a rural property. In the foreground, there are three raised garden beds filled with soil and some plants. To the left, a white detached barn with a dark roof is visible. A wooden fence runs across the middle ground, enclosing a green paddock. In the background, there are trees and a few houses under a clear blue sky.

Stunning detached barn extended to circa 2490 sq ft offering spacious and stylish living space set in gated grounds of 0.2 acres with adjoining paddock circa 2.72 acres. The home boasts four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, three reception rooms and a gorgeous bespoke luxury living/dining kitchen.

This thoughtfully renovated barn seamlessly combines rustic charm with modern comforts creating a home that is both elegant and welcoming. The property benefits from oil fired central heating throughout, with the addition of underfloor heating across the ground floor and an attractive combination of stone and oak flooring. It is set on land totally approximately 2.94 acres with an enclosed paddock to the rear of circa 2.72 acres, making this property a dream come true for horse enthusiasts and those seeking a tranquil rural retreat that is still close to many amenities. It is nestled in the picturesque hamlet of Shortheath, just 4 miles from the market town of Ashby-de-la-Zouch surrounded by fields and offers the perfect blend of luxury living and rural life. Nearby Overseal is a busy local village with lots going on including a great village school, church, local shops, great fish and chip shop, and of course the village pub. The area is surrounded by footpaths with country walks, bridle paths and local outdoor pursuits in the National Forest include Conkers, Moira Furnace and Hicks Lodge to name but a few.

The sociable kitchen is a true highlight of this home, boasting a practical and attractive stone flag floor with bespoke hand painted shaker style cabinetry, contrasting granite countertops with inset Villeroy and Boch Belfast style double bowl sink. There is a feature centre island with feature deep oak countertops and granite preparation area, perfect for baking. Set within the kitchen are twin Liebherr fridge freezers, dishwasher and Falcon range cooker and this contemporary open plan living space expertly blends not only the kitchen, but dining and living areas into one perfect space made for family life and entertaining friends.

You can choose between two inviting living rooms, one larger with natural stone flooring and views over the garden and countryside from its French double doors and the second sitting room with a vaulted ceiling, oak flooring and a stone fireplace with recessed log burner for those chilly nights. For those working from home, there is a dedicated office which has dual aspect windows with views and feature rustic brick flooring. The property has the benefit of well appointed guest cloakroom and also a laundry/boot room with further shaker style cabinetry and appliance spaces.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with a thoughtful layout and generous proportions. The principal bedroom has twin skylights with views over the garden and fields. Adjacent is a beautiful luxury en suite bathroom which comprises walk-through frameless rainfall shower, WC, tabletop wash hand basin with pillar tap, jacuzzi style bath and attractive natural stone tiling running throughout the room.
