Accommodation: On the ground floor, you are first welcomed by a well-proportioned reception hallway, featuring charming quarry tile flooring underfoot and beautiful exposed beams overhead. A winding timber staircase leads up to a galleried landing, while beneath it sits a useful and stylish guest cloakroom.

To your left, you'll find the cosy snug/bedroom three-a versatile space with solid wooden flooring, dual-aspect windows and French doors that open onto the patio area.

The heart of the home is, without a doubt, the large open-plan living, dining and kitchen area. The kitchen is beautifully designed in a classic cottage style, featuring shaker-style cabinets, solid timber worktops and an inset Belfast sink. A beamed inglenook recess provides the perfect space for a range-style cooker. Flowing seamlessly from the kitchen is the inviting family sitting area, offering plenty of space for a sofa, while French double doors with side windows flood the room with natural light. A small step up leads into the open-plan dining room, where a second set of French doors opens out to the gardens.

Lastly, adjacent to the dining room you'll find the character-filled beamed living room, complete with beautiful oak flooring and a heart warming log-burning stove-perfect for cosy winter evenings.

Upstairs, on the first floor, there are two charming double cottage-style bedrooms, both featuring sloping ceilings, exposed beams and striking roof trusses. Each bedroom benefits from a beautifully refitted en-suite shower room. The principal family bathroom has also been thoughtfully updated, boasting a stunning slipper-style roll-top bath with claw and ball feet, a pillar mixer tap, a WC, a wash hand basin and a stylish period-style towel-warming radiator.

Outside: The property is set well back from the road and is approached via a shared private driveway. It benefits from its own driveway and a single garage, alongside beautifully enclosed lawned gardens teeming with birdlife.
