Royston & Lund are pleased to present this well-presented, traditional style end terraced house situated in West Bridgford, within close proximity of excellent amenities including supermarkets, local shops, frequent transport links and well-regarded schools. The property is ideal for a growing family or a professional couple.

Entering the property you are greeted by one of two reception rooms. The reception room to the front is versatile and includes a bay window to the front elevation providing natural lighting. The second reception room would be ideal to set out as a dining room as it is off the kitchen, it also provides access to the first floor via the stairs. The kitchen includes a modern range of units as well as integrated appliances including a hob, oven and an extractor fan.

To the first floor there are three ample-sized bedrooms with the main bedroom to the front of the property. The bedrooms are complemented by a stylish shower room which includes a WC, walk-in shower and a wash basin.

Outside, there is the benefit of an enclosed low maintenance rear garden which is perfect for BBQ's, garden furniture and socialising in the summer.
