Guide Price £1,750,000

Royston & Lund proudly present this executive detached three-storey home located in the prestigious, gated Bunny Hall Park in the sought-after village of Bunny. Bunny offers local amenities, including the Randcliffe Arms pub, a primary school, and recreational facilities like a village hall, playground, and sports fields.

Upon entering the property, you're welcomed by a grand entrance hall, which grants access to all areas of the home, including a ground-floor WC and cloakroom. The ground floor features three spacious reception rooms: a lounge with a fireplace and triple aspect windows, a versatile day room with bespoke shelving, and a formal dining room with space for a large table, a fireplace, and double doors opening to the garden. The kitchen, with its farmhouse-style units, integrated appliances, and central island, connects seamlessly to a beautiful orangery with French doors leading to the patio.

The first floor hosts five of the seven bedrooms, including the principal suite, which boasts a dressing room with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. Two additional bedrooms also have en-suites, and the family bathroom offers a five-piece suite. This floor also includes a generous office with bespoke furniture.

The top floor comprises two further double bedrooms, a fourth reception room/bedroom, and a large en-suite shower room/WC.

Externally, the property is accessed via wrought iron gates leading to a block-paved driveway, offering ample off-street parking and access to a quadruple detached garage with further roof storage. The wrap-around garden is meticulously maintained, featuring a lawn, various seating areas, and a rare Redwood tree.

Please note: There is a maintenance fee of £100 pcm.
