

Midsummer House Longcroft, Hempstead Saffron Walden Freehold

Key Features

- 5 double bedroom detached house
- 3 reception rooms
- Large rear garden with gorgeous views to the countryside
- Extremely well presented throughout
- Spacious downstairs living

Midsomer House has gone through a complete transformation resulting in a superb family home with excellent living space and FIVE DOUBLE BEDROOMS.

There have been several improvements made by the current owners particularly decorating throughout including a re-fitted ensuite, new window shutters, downstairs underfloor heating and upgraded electrics.

On entering the welcoming hallway, the downstairs has a great feeling of light and space and comprises of three reception rooms: large sitting room, study and dining room with windows to two sides looking out on to the gorgeous rear garden.

The modern kitchen/breakfast room is very well equipped with the added benefit of an island plus door to utility room. Downstairs cloakroom completes the ground floor. The property is quite unique in offering five double bedrooms with en-suite to main bedroom and four of the bedrooms offer excellent wardrobe or cupboard space. On the first floor is also a modern family bathroom. The rear garden which is to the rear and side is a haven for quiet relaxation or entertaining and the views to the fields are very special. The garden is made up predominantly of lawn and patio and has the benefit of remote-control lighting, new fences and has side access to the front. The doors to the double garage are opened by remote control and there is ample parking to the front. There is also new fencing to the front and with the outside of the house having been painted, the result is an extremely attractive and spacious family home that needs to be viewed to be fully appreciated.
