The inviting living room is full of character, featuring exposed beams, quaint window seats, and a stunning Inglenook fireplace complete with a wood-burning stove. Under-stairs provides more handy storage space. A door leads directly into the private courtyard garden.

Upstairs, the generous master bedroom offers built-in storage, original beams, and a wonderfully serene atmosphere. The second bedroom is a comfortable double, full of characterful features including a charming fireplace and dual-aspect windows that fill the room with natural light. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the first floor.

Outside, the low-maintenance courtyard garden is both peaceful and private, with space for alfresco dining or simply relaxing in the sun. The property also enjoys the use of off-road parking, which the current owners have partly adapted as a practical log store.

With its quintessential stone façade, exposed beams throughout, and sought-after village setting, Cornerstones is a rare gem, ideal as a country retreat as it is a simple commute by train from either Corby or Kettering straight to London, a characterful family home, or a unique downsize opportunity. The property is beautifully presented with the addition of newly fitted windows, viewing is highly recommended to appreciate everything this enchanting cottage has to offer.
