Available to rent is this superb two bedroom home which is offered in immaculate order throughout. Having undergone recent improvements, the property offers a stunning fitted kitchen with a range of fully integrated appliances, a beautifully appointed shower room and gas central heating throughout with a modern replacement boiler. To the front of the property is the entrance porch which leads through to the lounge. Leading off the lounge is the kitchen/breakfast room which has French doors opening to the private and low maintenance rear garden. To the first floor are the two double bedrooms and separate shower room. Other benefits include double glazing throughout and a programme of redecoration. The property can be found in a small cul de sac and located nearby to the property are the TWO ALLOCATED PARKING SPACES. The property is ready for occupation at the end of May and to arrange a viewing please contact a member of our lettings department.
