Location

Chattenden is a small village with a military past that is now firmly on the 21st century map as a great place to live. Situated just off the A228, it is close to the River Medway and about three miles from historic Rochester with its high-speed service to London. The rail journey to London St Pancras takes as little as 35 minutes, to London Bridge about 40 minutes and London Victoria 40 - 55 minutes. Proximity to the A2/M2 is minutes away by car which means uncomplicated journeys for drivers whether heading for the Queen Elizabeth II crossing, M25, capital or coast.
