Description

This 3 bedroom semi-detached house, built we believe in the early 1930's, is located in a sought after residential road to the south side of the town whilst also offering the opportunity to extend or covert the large loft space (STPP)

Located within walking distance of the town centre, garden allotments and the Fortyfoot Recreation Ground, this home which has been in the same family ownership since 1961 is now offered with no onward chain.

Offering the opportunity for some updating, it has been recently redecorated and recarpeted (virtually throughout). On the ground floor, the bright and airy accommodation includes an entrance hall and downstairs cloakroom, an open plan sitting room/dining room (was two rooms and could be so again, if desired), large conservatory and kitchen.

On the first floor there are 3 bedrooms and a bathroom. It should be noted that other similar properties in the road have also been enlarged to include a loft conversion.

The attractive rear garden is a lovely feature being well stocked with an array of mature shrubs and trees. Set just within the rear garden is a large workshop and outside w.c.

To the front is off road parking and a detached garage with access in between the house and the garage to the rear garden.
