"Historically Speaking"

Situated in heart of Geddington, with direct views of the historic Queen Eleanor Cross this deceptively large red brick and stone cottage is full of character. The well presented interior features an entrance hall/utility area, a free flowing Kitchen/Dining room with select integrated appliances and granite worksurfaces, and a lovely living room enjoying the warmth of a woodburner, the perfect vantage point from which to admire the outlook, with views toward the Church. Upstairs there are three bedrooms arranged over two floors, the first floor with principal bathroom, a double bedroom and a single bedroom, the second floor has a large double room which leads to a further generous room which could be a study, hobby room or occasional bedroom four. Outside there is a lovely courtyard garden with walled enclosure providing a secluded feel. Geddington has a primary school, village pub, idyllic Church, historic bridge and Ford as well as open parklands and lovely rural walks – a home and village full of history!
