RAVENSHEAD

Ravenshead has a long and rich history dating back to before Norman times. After the Conquest in 1066, what is now Sherwood Forest was a popular hunting ground for the Norman kings. A century later, Henry II founded an Augustinian priory at Newstead Abbey, which later became the ancestral home of Lord Byron. Modern day Ravenshead has a good range of local amenities, including a local convenience store, a Sainsbury's local, a thriving farm shop and several pubs. One of the pubs, The Hutt, occupies a delightful 15th century building, erected on the site of a Royal Hutt, one of seven built to house the men patrolling Sherwood Forest to protect the King's deer. Adjacent to Byron Place is Ravenshead Leisure Centre, which has two sports halls, tennis courts, a ball court and football pitches. There is also a purpose built Village Hall, which hosts a wide range of activities from badminton and ballroom dancing to yoga and zumba. Cherubs Longdale Nursery is a short walk from Byron Place. Abbey Gates Primary School, rated "Outstanding" is nearby and Ravenshead Church of England Primary School, rated "Good" is just over a mile away.

AROUND AND ABOUT

Byron Place is situated on the southern side of the village, just a short drive from the A60, which connects Mansfield and Nottingham. Newstead Abbey and its 300 acres of parkland is a popular tourist destination. The park and gardens are open all year round and the house is open at weekends. Mansfield, which is just over 5 miles to the north, offers a good choice of retail parks, shopping centres, supermarkets, and local shops as well as a wide range of leisure activities. Sherwood Forest is just a few miles to the northeast of Mansfield. With nearly 1,000 ancient oak trees, a visitor centre and cafe, it is perfect for a family day out. The city of Nottingham is a creative and vibrant place and a UNESCO City of Literature. Often called the 'Home of English Sport' it can claim a Premier League football team, The National Ice Centre, The Holme Pierrepont National Watersports Centre, and Trent Bridge international cricket ground. It is also home to two universities: Nottingham Trent University and The University of Nottingham, who's most famous alumnus is the author D.H.Lawrence.

These particulars, whilst believed to be accurate are set out as a general outline only for guidance and do not constitute any part of an offer or contract. Intending purchasers should not rely on them as statements of representation of fact, but must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to their accuracy. No person in this firm's employment has the authority to make or give any representation or warranty in respect of the property. Any fixtures and fittings not mentioned in these details are excluded from the sale price. No services or appliances which may have been included in these details have been tested by the selling agent and therefore cannot be guaranteed to be in good working order.

As part of the service we offer we may recommend ancillary services to you such as mortgage advice, solicitors and surveyors which we believe will help with your property transaction. We wish to make you aware that should you decide to proceed we may receive a referral fee or equivalent. This could be a fee, commission, payment or other reward. We will not refer your details unless you have provided consent for us to do so. You are not under any obligation to provide us with your consent or to use any of these services. You are also free to choose an alternative provider.
