RAVENSHEAD

Ravenshead has a long and rich history dating back to before Norman times. After the Conquest in 1066, what is now Sherwood Forest was a popular hunting ground for the Norman kings. A century later, Henry II founded an Augustinian priory at Newstead Abbey, which later became the ancestral home of Lord Byron. Modern day Ravenshead has a good range of local amenities, including a local convenience store, a Sainsbury's local, a thriving farm shop and several pubs. One of the pubs, The Hutt, occupies a delightful 15th century building, erected on the site of a Royal Hutt, one of seven built to house the men patrolling Sherwood Forest to protect the King's deer. Adjacent to Byron Place is Ravenshead Leisure Centre, which has two sports halls, tennis courts, a ball court and football pitches. There is also a purpose built Village Hall, which hosts a wide range of activities from badminton and ballroom dancing to yoga and zumba. Cherubs Longdale Nursery is a short walk from Byron Place. Abbey Gates Primary School, rated "Outstanding" is nearby and Ravenshead Church of England Primary School, rated "Good" is just over a mile away.

AROUND AND ABOUT

Byron Place is situated on the southern side of the village, just a short drive from the A60, which connects Mansfield and Nottingham. Newstead Abbey and its 300 acres of parkland is a popular tourist destination. The park and gardens are open all year round and the house is open at weekends. Mansfield, which is just over 5 miles to the north, offers a good choice of retail parks, shopping centres, supermarkets, and local shops as well as a wide range of leisure activities. Sherwood Forest is just a few miles to the northeast of Mansfield. With nearly 1,000 ancient oak trees, a visitor centre and cafe, it is perfect for a family day out. The city of Nottingham is a creative and vibrant place and a UNESCO City of Literature. Often called the 'Home of English Sport' it can claim a Premier League football team, The National Ice Centre, The Holme Pierrepont National Watersports Centre, and Trent Bridge international cricket ground. It is also home to two universities: Nottingham Trent University and The University of Nottingham, who's most famous alumnus is the author D.H.Lawrence.
