

DIRECTIONS

From our Chepstow office, proceed along Welsh Street, towards racecourse. At the racecourse roundabout take the road towards Itton, as you enter the village, bear left and then at the staggered junction go straight over. Continue along this lane for approximately 200 yards where you will find Wheelrights Barn on your right-hand side.

Wheelwrights Barn comprises a charming stone-built barn, now benefitting from planning consent (Monmouthshire Council Ref: DM/2022/01757), to convert to an attractive dwelling, offering spacious living/dining room, good sized kitchen, utility and ground floor cloakroom and then potentially three bedrooms and bathroom to the first floor. The property enjoys its own private driveway, leading to a pleasant garden area, with a potential to negotiate for an additional one acre of paddock adjacent to a barn, if required.

Itton is a very sought after area of Monmouthshire, a charming hamlet located approximately 2 ½ miles from the historic town of Chepstow with good road access to the M48 motorway to Bristol and beyond. The area also nestles on the edge of the famous Wye Valley, an area of designated outstanding natural beauty.
