This property comprises a detached chalet bungalow dating from the 1960's and offering an exceptional position overlooking the Severn Estuary and beyond, whilst standing in its own pleasant level mature gardens and extending down onto the bank of the river, within easy reach of local amenities as well as Chepstow's town centre and the M48 motorway for commuting.

The spacious accommodation currently offers entrance hall with ground floor bedroom, bathroom and WC, second sitting room or bedroom 4 and large living room with excellent views over the river, spacious kitchen with utility area and ground floor shower room, as well as double garage. To the first floor two double bedrooms and large landing. The property does need some upgrading but offers immense potential to either enhance the current accommodation or indeed carry out further extensions and modifications if required.
