Hayes Gate House comprises of the principal wing of a substantial farm house believed to date from 1750, the property has been updated over time and provides the characterful and charming accommodation now offered. The property benefits from many period features such as flagstone flooring, exposed wood flooring, a wealth of beams, along with many fireplaces and shuttered windows, ensuring the characterful feel of this family home. Beautiful gardens enhance the outside space featuring a host of mature trees and shrubs, a pond and a stone-built outhouse with power enabling the option of a garden home office.

Hayes Gate House occupies a pleasant position just off the A48, thus offering easy access to the historic town of Chepstow within this pretty part of Monmouthshire. Many countryside pursuits lie nearby, including the St Pierre Golf and Country Club. There are good bus, road and rail links with the A48, M4 and M48 motorway networks, bringing Bristol, Cardiff and Newport all within commuting distance.
