Situated in the popular village of St Briavels, The Gables comprises an individually designed detached property, having been constructed in recent years and affording fantastic substantial and versatile accommodation to suit a variety of markets and to include the opportunity for multi-generational living. The well-planned layout offers; reception hall, WC/cloakroom, stunning open plan kitchen/dining/family room, separate lounge, two ground floor double bedrooms and a Jack & Jill bathroom to the ground floor, with three double bedrooms including principal with en-suite and a family bathroom to the first floor. Further benefits include a detached double garage, extensive private driveway and wrap-around gardens.

St Briavels, nestled in the Forest of Dean, Gloucestershire, is a picturesque village rich in history and natural beauty. Key attractions include the 12th-century St Briavels Castle, now a youth hostel, and the Norman St Mary the Virgin Church. The surrounding Wye Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty offers numerous trails for hiking, as well as opportunities for canoeing and climbing. The village features local amenities such as The George Inn, a historic pub, and a village shop and post office.
