The Property

An opportunity to acquire a block of 17 garages together with associated access and circulation space, situated within a well-established residential area of Ryde on the Isle of Wight. The property is fully occupied and currently generates a gross rental income of approximately £14,280 per annum, equating to a 8% gross yield.

The site presents an attractive investment opportunity for private investors, local landlords and cash purchasers seeking a low-management income-producing asset. Demand for secure garage accommodation remains strong across many residential areas, particularly where off-street parking and storage provision is limited.

The garages benefit from direct access from Great Preston Road and occupy a convenient position within easy reach of Ryde town centre and surrounding residential neighbourhoods.

Sale Plan Not to scale

Situation

The property is situated within a predominantly residential area of Ryde, one of the Isle of Wight's principal towns. Ryde offers a comprehensive range of shopping, educational, leisure and transport facilities, including mainland ferry and hovercraft connections to Portsmouth and Southsea.

Great Preston Road is conveniently located for access to the town centre, local amenities and surrounding residential districts. The location supports continued demand for garage and storage accommodation, making the property well placed as a long-term investment holding.
