Star Cottage

5 Enfield Road, Deal

A comprehensively renovated character cottage, conveniently positioned for the town and seafront, offering beautifully presented accommodation over three floors.

Situation

Enfield Road is a quiet residential street conveniently positioned to the north of Deal town centre and a short distance from the seafront. Deal is a traditional coastal town with a twist of the creative scene, boasting an award-winning high street that offers a pleasing mix of individual shops, restaurants and cafes, a weekly market, attractive pebble seafront, Grade II listed pier and historic Tudor Castle. The town not only has plenty of period charm but also a flourishing local community. There are plenty of opportunities for outdoor pursuits and a two-mile promenade ideal for cycling and walking. The mainline railway station offers a regular service and links to the high-speed Javelin to London St Pancras.

bathroom located on the first floor. This stylish home is double glazed, gas centrally heated and chain free.

Outside

Externally, Star Cottage benefits from a private enclosed courtyard garden measuring approximately 22'9" x 12'10" (6.93m x 3.91m). Designed for both practicality and enjoyment, the space features timber gates providing vehicular access to incorporate space for one car. A raised decked seating area creates an ideal spot for outdoor dining and relaxation, while attractive timber fencing and wood-panelled boundaries enhance the sense of privacy and character.

The Property

Nestled within the quiet and quaint residential streets to the north of Deal town centre lies Star Cottage, a truly charming and beautifully presented character property, being sold with no onward chain and benefitting from a comprehensive renovation and a private courtyard incorporating space for one car. The accommodation begins with a welcoming sitting room featuring an attractive fireplace as its focal point and solid oak flooring, that runs throughout the ground floor. An opening leads through to the dining room, a bright and inviting space enhanced by a roof lantern that fills the room with natural light, making it ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.
