Chic Living in the Heart of Historic Leek

Nestled within an exclusive new development, this beautifully finished one-bedroom terraced home perfectly combines period charm with contemporary comfort. Located in the vibrant centre of Leek—Staffordshire's charming market town—this residence is ideally positioned near independent shops, cafés, and essential amenities.

Crafted by a reputable local developer, the property honour's its heritage while embracing modern living. The inviting lounge features a striking fireplace, wood-style flooring, and uPVC sash-style window, creating a classic yet fresh ambiance.

The stylish open-plan kitchen at the rear has, on trend, elegant navy blue cabinetry, wood-effect worktops, white tiled splashbacks, and integrated cooking appliances, all enhanced by sleek inset lighting. French doors connect the interior to the rear courtyard. An inner hallway provides access to the staircase leading to the first floor, along with a convenient under-stairs area that includes plumbing for a washing machine.

Upstairs, the spacious principal bedroom offers a good size double room, while the stunning modern bathroom features a freestanding bath, shower cubicle, W.C., and wash hand basin—balancing comfort and practicality for everyday living.

This thoughtfully designed home is ideal for professionals, couples, or anyone seeking to downsize in style—all within the heart of one of Staffordshire's most desirable towns.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
