A beautifully presented, 1930s traditional semi-detached home, situated within the highly sought-after Shakespeare Manor development. With scope for extensions (STPP).

Fabian Crescent enjoys a prime position within this popular residential area, offering convenient access to the excellent amenities of Shirley and its surrounding neighbourhoods.

The property is understood to fall within the catchment area for a number of well-regarded schools, including Light Hall School. Nearby primary education is provided by Woodlands Infant School and Shirley Heath School. In addition, St James's Academy, part of the Tudor Grange Schools Trust, is located close by. A selection of respected Catholic schools are also within easy reach, including Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic School and St Peter's Catholic School. (All school placements should be verified with the local authority.)

Shirley's bustling high street offers an excellent range of supermarkets, independent shops, restaurants, and traditional pubs. For more extensive shopping and leisure facilities, the nearby Touchwood Centre in Solihull provides a vibrant mix of retail, dining, and entertainment options.

The area is well served by public transport, with frequent bus services along the A34 providing direct links to Birmingham city centre and Solihull. Shirley railway station offers regular rail services to Birmingham and Stratford-upon-Avon.

For commuters, the property benefits from excellent road connections, with easy access to the M42 motorway and a range of nearby business hubs including Cranmore, Widney, Monkspath and Blythe Valley Business Park. Birmingham Airport and the adjoining railway station are also just a short drive away.

The property is set back from the road behind a double width block paved driveway with well stocked shrubbery beds. Access is gained via a composite entrance door leading to;
