DESCRIPTION

An impressive Grade II listed detached Georgian vicarage, occupying a delightful rural position with rural views over the adjoining countryside. The property stands within its own substantial grounds totaling approximately 0.4 acres.

ACCOMMODATION TO INCLUDE:

The front door leads into a generous entrance hall with the main staircase and parquet effect flooring. Beneath the main staircase there is a coat store and a boiler room that houses a large water tank.

To the right of the hall, the triple aspect drawing room incorporates some original features, such as the window shutters, picture rail and open fire with a white marble surround (ornate only). A half-glazed door leads to the orangery which offers an excellent space to enjoy on a summers day with a delightful aspect and access to the garden.

To the left of the hall there is a large sitting room with a fireplace and the windows with shutters have a dual aspect over the garden.

The spacious dining room boasts impressive local slate flooring and a wood burning stove and offers itself as an excellent space for hosting. A step leads through to the lobby and alternative entrance from the garden. A solid wood door leads to the kitchen, which comprises a central beechwood island, a wood fired Rayburn and a range of modern fitted units with granite worktops.

From the kitchen there is a rear hall with a downstairs cloakroom with WC, a pump room/utility with a large Belfast sink, worktops, space for all necessary appliances and a second staircase leading to the first floor.

A back kitchen comprises a range of wall mounted units, base and drawers, sink and a Rangemaster cooker.

A rear stable door provides access to the workshop, tool store and wood store and beyond to the garden.

The first floor offers a split level landing with a charming, restored Victorian stained-glass window, a useful store room, 5 well presented double bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom with a roll top bath, shower, WC and a wash hand basin above a granite topped cupboard. Each of the bedrooms enjoy lovely aspects over the grounds and countryside, with three of the bedrooms benefitting from integral wardrobes/cupboards and Bedroom 5 benefitting from an en-suite shower room.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached from a gated entrance to a gravel drive providing ample parking. The garden wraps around the property with lawns, mature shrubs and trees, creating a private setting. Beyond the garden is a bridle path, leading towards Wilsey Woods. Across the courtyard from the rear kitchen is the well that is securely covered under a strong wooden platform. To the rear of the property are three storage sheds for the tenants use.
