

This semi detached house was built around in 2000. It is very well presented and in excellent decorative order throughout. The property is spacious and benefits from gas central heating, photovoltaic panels and double glazing. There are low maintenance gardens to the front and there is a large drive to the side with room for two or three cars with an additional two spaces on Averon Road. The house is in a quiet yet very central area of Alness and just a short walk from the amenities on offer in the town. This property is a fantastic opportunity for a first time buyer or for someone looking to downsize, it is also equipped for those with disabilities.

Wright's Lane is just off the High Street and is also a short walk from the retail unit and despite its central location the street is very quiet. Bridgend Primary School is nearby and the secondary school and leisure centre, swimming pool and library are all a short distance from the house. Other local amenities include a variety of shops, national supermarkets, banks, restaurants, hotels and take aways. Inverness is 20 miles distant and Dingwall is 10 miles away. Bus and train services are both available on a regular basis to the north and south, the bus stops and the train station are also a short walk from the property.

Directions: Turn off the High Street at the West end into Ardross Street then take the first right onto Averon Road, just past a residents car park you will find Wright's Lane on the right. There is designated parking at the gable end of No. 4.
