A stunning character cottage which has been thoughtfully extended by the current owners situated within walking distance of both the High Street and Station.

Ground floor
Upon entering, a beautifully presented hallway sets the tone, with rich oak flooring and a refined palette of Farrow & Ball colours. A double reception room, one with an attractive fireplace and one with a wood burning stove lead to an extended kitchen / diner. This features nicely fitted units, a traditional Belfast sink and a range of fitted appliances. This leads on to a classic Victorian bathroom, complete with a high level WC, heritage style basin and stunning roll-top bath. A manicured sunny garden, complete with garden seating and a range of shrubs is conveniently accessed via the new extension.

First floor
The first floor is accessed via a classic Victorian staircase with a fitted runner and painted timber treads. The principal bedroom, complete with a range of fitted wardrobes, has a good sized en suite shower room, again in a period Victorian style. Two further bedrooms, one currently used as a home office, continue the traditional theme.

Second floor
This room, filled with light, has been thoughtfully created, and is currently used as a bedroom. It could also be configured as a home office or play room.

Outside
The front garden is behind a brick wall and has a path with steps leading to the front door. The rear garden is fully enclosed and secluded. It offers a low-maintenance entertaining space with a large patio area with a pergola providing shade. A gate provides access to the rear alleyway.
