THE LOCAL AREA

Radcliffe on Trent is a charming village that offers the perfect blend of tranquillity and convenience. The village boasts a wealth of amenities that cater for everyday needs and more. The village centre presents a convenience store, post office, library and a range of independent shops, together offering unique finds alongside everyday essentials. There is also a local butcher and bakery in the village, ensuring the essentials are only ever a short journey away.

Radcliffe on Trent enjoys village schools that range from nursery through to sixth form, putting a child's entire educational journey on the doorstep. It is well connected with excellent road and rail links. The village is accessible via the A52, which connects to Nottingham, Bingham, Grantham and the A46 for direct routes to Newark-on-Trent, Lincoln and Leicester as well as enjoying a regular and frequent bus service, and a direct train service to Nottingham.

SPITFIRE HOMES

Spitfire Homes is an award-winning homebuilder with a proven track record for creating design-led, sustainable properties across the Midlands. Whether presenting a deliberate contrast or seamlessly tying in with the local vernacular, the combination of quality materials, striking architectural detail and carefully considered layouts enables Spitfire to create places that people want to call home.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND CGI'S

Photography is taken from already constructed homes of the same house type. Computer generated images (CGI's) are of the relevant house type and not necessarily the specific plot. Roof and brick materials vary per home, please ask for specific plot details.
