WHAT OUR VENDORS SAY

2 Belmont Grove /Allen Cottage, we've loved living there.

The house seems to have elastic sides, no matter how many family we had for Sunday lunches etc, it never seemed too small. The kitchen is my delight. I love cooking and baking, and this kitchen has all I could ask for. The dual oven with the energy efficient top oven, the space etc. just works so well.

We have had parties in the dining kitchen and also summer nights out in the garden.

The house gets the sun all day. Morning in the back and side and then the evening sun in the front.

When the temperature cools down, we found this a wonderful place to sit and have a wine or two.

The house seems so private because of the hedges but not so as you feel enclosed but a marvellous wind break.

I love the way the light floods into the house and the garden can be seen through every window.

This house will leave us with many happy memories of cosy winter nights in front of the log burner, long summer days with both doors open and the summer breeze filtering through.

Friends and family visitors all. were welcomed into this happy house. I'm sure that will carry on, when we have left with our happy memories.
