GIRAFFE360

Marham is an established West Norfolk village, surrounded by countryside and well known for its connections with RAF Marham. The village offers a range of everyday amenities, including local shops, primary schooling, a doctor's surgery and takeaway outlets, together with a village hall, playing field and children's play area.

The nearby towns of Downham Market, Swaffham and King's Lynn provide a wider choice of shopping, leisure and secondary education facilities. Downham Market also benefits from a mainline railway station with direct services to Cambridge and London King's Cross, making Marham a convenient base for those seeking village life with access to surrounding towns and transport connections.
