

A stunning stone-built Grade II listed semi-detached period property arranged over two floors with an abundance of character features, refurbished to the highest of standards, with the additional benefit of a detached stone-built barn, a double garage, and a fabulous outside entertaining area in the garden.

Approached over an extensive driveway serving just two properties, Bottrell House is a fabulous period property beautifully presented in the heart of the popular Oxfordshire village of Charlton On Otmoor.

A pretty porch at the front of the property leads to an attractive entrance hallway with traditional flagstone flooring, which sets the tone for what is to follow in this charming village property.

The living room boasts exposed beams, window seats, and a feature fireplace, which makes for the perfect space for family gatherings and relaxing on long winter evenings.

Formal dining and weekend lunches will be a treat in the dining room, which also has traditional flagstone flooring, exposed beams, and an attractive brick-built fireplace with a wood-burning stove.

The kitchen is fitted with floor and eye-level units, integrated appliances, including a Quooker tap, and space for an American-style fridge freezer, along with a fabulous island, which has a beautiful underlit granite worktop.

The first floor has three double bedrooms and a luxurious family bathroom. The principal bedroom benefits from having an en-suite shower room along with fitted wardrobes.

Outside the property benefits from having a detached stone-built barn which has been transformed to provide a fantastic space for those who need to work from home, an amazing entertaining area, and a studio. It would also make for a potential annexe, or an opportunity for a rental income, subject to planning permission.

Outside the barn, the current vendors have also created a lovely seating area to enjoy a morning coffee or a glass of wine.

The driveway leads to a double garage, parking for numerous vehicles, the neighbouring property, and the walled garden.

Carefully landscaped with a large area laid to lawn, the garden offers the perfect sanctuary to unwind on long summer evenings.

The outside entertaining area offers the ideal space for BBQ's, pizza evenings, and weekend parties with family and friends.
