The Croft at Catburn is located by Dunbeath which is well connected by bus to Inverness. The land itself is approx 4.15 acres of owned croft land with existing historic outbuildings and coastal views. The croft presents an opportunity for a hobby crofter or small start up crofter to obtain land with the possibility of eventually building a home (subject to full planning) or developing the outbuildings. Dunbeath itself has a rural primary school. The closest town for amenities such as GP surgery, hospital, secondary schools, dentists, shopping and rail connections is Wick which is approx. 24 miles north.
