Also lying within the village are the beautiful Shrawley woods with bluebell walks and the village hall.

The neighbouring village of Holt Heath has a post office/stores together with Broomfields farm shop and a public house/Indian restaurant. Despite its lovely rural position, it is very well placed for commuting to Worcester and beyond together with excellent motorway access via junction 5 at Wychbold and junction 6 and 7 to the north of the city.

Worcester, Kidderminster and Droitwich Spa all have direct rail links to Birmingham and beyond. There are Waitrose stores in both Droitwich and Worcester.

Description

This much-loved family farmhouse has been owned by the present vendors for the period of the last 54 years. They have carried out a significant extension to the house to create what has been historically used as a first floor flat with independent staircase access.

Bowpit Farm enjoys quite stunning uninterrupted views over its land towards Malvern Hills. There are also further lovely views to the west.

The generous and character family accommodation is enhanced by some fine exposed timbers. The house is very flexible and is a wonderful package for a country home buyer.

It is approached by the original reception hall with flagstone floor. Leading off this are two reception rooms, the sitting room with splendid inglenook fireplace with wood burning stove and exposed timber frame. The spacious dining room has a brick fireplace in handsome oak surround, exposed timber frame and brickwork and door to the exterior.

Lying adjacent to these two reception rooms is the good-sized breakfast kitchen with range of wall and floor mounted oak cupboards, tiled working surfaces, Belfast sink unit, oil fired Rayburn and understairs storage cupboard and china pantry. There is a rear hallway leading to a lounge with integral cupboard and gorgeous views.

Also on the ground floor is a useful shower room and bedroom which has been used as an office.

The first floor provides four bedrooms, one with en-suite shower room, a family bathroom, dressing room and a utility/small kitchen area with door and staircase to the rear. There is a splendid studio with vaulted roof and striking triangular window. Like many rooms it enjoys incredible views.

Outside

Bowpit Farm is approached via a metal bar field gate and a country style driveway with adjoining dew pond.

The driveway continues to the side of the house and to the substantial outbuildings.

This is a large L shaped period barn with conversion potential (subject to planning) together with an adjoining carport. The barn is presently subdivided into five stores with power supply.

A basement and cloakroom, both with external access.

Delightful garden room situated within the courtyard next to the house with woodburning stove, boiler room and log store.

Gardens and Grounds

Grassed area of gardens to both the east and south sides of the house. These encompass a paved patio and raised kitchen beds. The gardens enjoy quite exceptional views.

Two pasture paddocks leading directly off the gardens and grounds.

As a whole the curtilage extends to about 5.774 of an acre.
