ELM TREE ROAD

Weston-super-Mare, BS24 8DN

Asking Price £430,000

A quintessential stone built cottage parts of which date back to at least 1765 located in the ever popular village of Locking. Locking has a well known local pub, primary school, post office and general stores as well a hairdressers, pharmacy and a cafe, whilst the nearby town of Weston-super-Mare offers a more comprehensive range of services as well as transport links to Bristol and other parts of the country. The property which has been sympathetically restored still retains a great deal of charm and character with the accommodation which is gas centrally heated comprising a lounge, sitting or dining room, kitchen breakfast room, utility room and bathroom with bath and separate shower cubicle, whilst on the first floor 3 bedrooms and a hobbies room / occasional bedroom 4. Outside a real feature are the gardens with a lovely private south facing front garden with well stocked flower and shrub beds and borders, a rear cottage garden and then a further garden to the east of the driveway again laid to lawn and well stocked flower beds and borders. There is parking for 2 cars and a highly useful garage measuring 24'6" x 11'1" (7.47m x 3.38m) with power light and heating and access to a first floor area again with power light and heating that makes an ideal home office or hobbies space.
