South Chailey is a popular rural village surrounded by open countryside, lying approximately four miles to the north of the lovely county town of Lewes and approximately six miles to the south east of Haywards Heath and 5 miles from Burgess Hill. The village amenities include a convenience store with post office facilities, a doctor's surgery and a well regarded nearby secondary school within walking distance.

The village of Chailey Green (one mile north) has a church, a pub and a primary school/nursery. Plumpton Green (two and a half miles to the south west) has a railway station as does Cooksbridge. The towns of Haywards Heath, Burgess Hill and Lewes all have extensive shopping centres. Fast rail services to London (Victoria and London Bridge both approximately 45 minutes) can be found at Haywards Heath.

DIRECTIONS: From our office on the green at Newick head west along the A272 in the direction of Haywards Heath until reaching North Chailey. At the second mini-roundabout turn left (south) onto the A275 in the direction of Lewes. Carry on down this road for a couple of miles going past the Five Bells Inn then into South Chailey itself. Kilnwood Lane is a turning on the left in the middle of the village – turn left here then left into Festival Paddock and The Poplars will be straight ahead
