Located in a peaceful cul de sac setting in the highly desirable market town of Sedbergh, this generously proportioned two bedroom link detached home at 16 Queens Drive presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well presented property with flexible living space spread across multiple levels, a well maintained garden, private driveway parking and an attached garage.

Although presently configured with two bedrooms, the property previously accommodated a third bedroom, now used as a second bathroom, which could be reinstated subject to any necessary consents.

Sedbergh is located within the Yorkshire Dales National Park and is renowned for its breathtaking scenery, rich cultural heritage and strong sense of community. The town offers an excellent range of local amenities including independent shops, charming cafés, welcoming pubs, a regular market and the renowned Sedbergh School. It is also a popular destination for outdoor enthusiasts, with numerous walking and hiking routes available in the surrounding fells and countryside including the Howgill Fells and nearby River Rawthey.

As you enter the home, you are welcomed into an entrance hall which offers a bright and airy first impression. This area includes a useful storage cupboard. From here, you enter the inner hall which provides access to the sleeping accommodation. Both bedrooms are doubles and benefit from pleasant front facing aspects. The principal bedroom is well equipped with built in wardrobes, drawers and a cupboard for added storage.

Next door is the bathroom, fitted with a bath, separate shower, bidet, washbasin and WC. A second bathroom includes a bath, bidet, WC and sink, providing ideal facilities for guests or family members.

From the inner hall, stairs lead up to the main living level. At the top of the stairs, you arrive at the kitchen which is well appointed with a range of wall and base units, an integrated double oven, a four ring hob and space for a dishwasher. This elevated position offers views over the rear garden and brings in plenty of natural light, making it a pleasant and practical space for cooking.

Adjacent to the kitchen, the dining room offers a bright and comfortable space for family meals or entertaining, with a lovely outlook over the rear garden. Positioned at the front of the property, the living room is generously proportioned and filled with natural light through a large picture window. This room also features a gas fire, creating a warm and cosy environment ideal for relaxing evenings.

From the landing, stairs lead back down to the ground floor where you'll find a practical utility area. This space includes fitted base units, room for a washing machine and houses the boiler. The utility area also provides internal access to the attached single garage, which includes an electric up and over door, lighting and power, ideal for vehicle storage or use as a workshop.

To the rear of the property, a conservatory offers a peaceful retreat overlooking the private garden. It is an ideal spot for morning coffee or afternoon reading, with patio doors that open directly onto the
