Description

Robert Luff and Co are delighted to bring to market, this end of terrace town house, set over three floors. With incredible views over both the English Channel, and Widewater Lagoon and Nature Reserve. Offering a versatile layout, currently with two bedrooms on the top floor. The master bedroom having unobstructed views over the channel, and the other bedroom having views over the South Downs. Parking for two vehicles.

On the first floor there is an exceptional L-shaped living room, measuring over 27ft including an open plan dining area. Full length patio doors leading out, into a generous "tiered" rear garden. Mature garden with shrubs and patio areas. The garden has steps that lead directly down to the lagoon, and with direct access, via the pathway, leading directly onto Lancing beach and seafront.

Also on the first floor is the fitted kitchen and separate WC.

This home could easily be reconfigured, to accommodate three bedrooms if required.

The ground floor has storage cupboards, An integral garage with electric door. External storage shed. Further parking space.

Location wise its ideal for links to Shoreham, Brighton and Worthing and the A27 for access to London. Set on a bus route, and close to local shops, schools and train station.

Please call the office if you would like to arrange a viewing.
