ABOUT THE HOME

This is a charming Victorian conversion, split level two bedroom apartment on one of the most sought after roads in the Heaver Estate. The property is well presented throughout, with period features, and also benefits from having a share of the freehold

Streathbourne Road is conveniently located in the heart of the Heaver Estate adjoining to both Tooting Bec Common and Balham High Road. Residents have the benefit of access to a wealth of amenities including a range of independent shops, bars and restaurants at the Ritherdon Road parade, Balham High Road and Tooting Bec. There are a number of useful transport links including the northern line via Balham Underground, the Southern railway at Balham Station and a number of regular bus routes into the City.
