A CHARMING AND RECENTLY REFURBISHED TWO BEDROOM CHARACTER COTTAGE SET IN THE BEAUTIFUL CORNISH VILLAGE OF CARGREEN, OFFERED FOR SALE WITH NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Bursting with character and enjoying a peaceful village setting, this delightful home offers the perfect blend of countryside charm and community living.

Features include a spacious entrance hallway, a bright and welcoming living room with exposed wooden beams and feature fireplace, a light fitted kitchen with useful storage, a handy utility area and additional store room.

Upstairs there is a generous double bedroom with built-in cupboard, a further single bedroom, landing with airing cupboard and a good sized wet room. Outside, the rear garden is an excellent size and mainly laid to lawn, offering huge potential to create a wonderful outdoor space.

Located in the sought-after riverside village of Cargreen within the parish of Landulph, the property enjoys a truly idyllic setting surrounded by rolling countryside, farmland and equestrian facilities.

Just a short walk away, the village quay offers stunning views across the River Tamar towards the Devon countryside, with scenic riverside walks right on your doorstep. The village also benefits from a cricket pitch, nearby yacht club, public slipway for kayaks and paddleboards, children's park, playing field and even a charming telephone box book exchange, all contributing to the warm and welcoming community atmosphere.

Despite its tranquil location, the property remains conveniently positioned for access to Saltash, approximately five miles away, and Callington around seven miles away, with everyday amenities including Waitrose, Lidl and Saltash train station all within easy reach. Whether you are searching for a peaceful countryside retreat, a first home or a charming Cornish escape, this lovely cottage offers a fantastic opportunity to enjoy village life at its very best.
