Situated on a private road in the ever popular village of Horton is this wonderful Grade II Listed property offered for sale with no onward chain. The property originally dates back to the mid-18th century with the brick stable block and coach house being restored and converted for Horton Hall - the grand country estate that once dominated Horton.

Accommodation over three floors comprises entrance hall, cloakroom/WC, kitchen, 29' sitting/dining room, first floor landing with two double bedrooms and four-piece family bathroom and a second floor landing with two further double bedrooms with en-suite to one and a WC to the other. Externally there is off road parking and substantial immaculate private gardens. The property benefits from gas central heating, high ceilings and many original character features. (A/1907/L)
