Summary

Nestled in the charming village of Kilburn, this traditional 1930s detached house exudes character and warmth, making it an ideal family home. The property is situated on Woodhouse Road, a sought-after location that offers both tranquillity and convenience.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hall with wooden panelling that leads to a spacious sitting room to the front. There is an additional generous lounge with character fireplace and French doors that open to the rear garden and patio.

The heart of the home is the open-plan living and dining kitchen, which is comprehensively fitted and ideal for modern living. This area is complemented by a utility/cloakroom/WC.

On the ground floor, you will find a double bedroom complete with an en suite shower room, offering privacy and convenience. Upstairs, there are two further double bedrooms, one of which boasts its own en suite, while the other shares a well-appointed Jack and Jill bathroom with three-piece suite.

Outside, a driveway provides off-road parking and the former garage is now a useful workshop/utility/store.

The rear enclosed, mature garden enjoys a south-facing aspect and has a patio with extensive lawn beyond. The garden has the benefit of mature trees and shrubs to the borders and backs on to open countryside.

Conveniently located for easy access to Derby City centre, Belper, Ripley and Heanor. The A38, M1, A6 and A52 are all easily accessed. The village has regular bus services to many locations. A railway service from Derby and Belper provides easy access to London St Pancras and other major cities.
