Meticulously presented, to the highest of standards, is this fabulous detached family home.

Entrance hallway, downstairs w.c., large lounge with marble fireplace, light filled with two full length windows and double opening doors onto the front garden.

With separate dining room, and orangery, there is a luxuriously appointed kitchen with integrated appliances and separate utility.

At the first floor are four well proportioned bedrooms, the master having a refitted en suite, there is an additional family shower room.

There is an enclosed rear garden, part laid to lawn with an expansive Italian porcelain tiled patio area, Japanese garden and single detached garage with electric up and over door.

Solar panels - The Vendors have confirmed there are leased solar panels at this property. The property owner benefits from the use of energy generated by the solar panels and the leaseholder benefits from energy sold back to the national grid. A copy of the lease can be provided on request.

the location

Set in arguably one of Hanham's best locations, this home offers the convenience of all good local amenities, literally on its doorstep, yet a feel of the country, being set on the edge of Hanham woods, with its extensive range of wooded and riverside walks. Further local shop is available at nearby Hanham high street, and the more extensive facilities of the retail park at Longwell Green, with its range of national retailers, gym, leisure centre and swimming pool is a short drive away. what the owners will miss

"For nearly 11 years we have loved calling this spacious, secluded house our home.

We'll miss having doorstep access to Hanham woods & the 25 minute walk along the towpath to 2 riverside pubs; the neighbours and watching an array of birds (including green woodpeckers and nuthatches), foxes, squirrels & badgers that come into the front garden."

just a thought...

If you hadn't considered a modern style home before, this should be the one! Deceptively spacious, beautifully finished to the highest of standards, in an amazing rarely available location. Don't let this be the one that got away!
