Cowsland Farmhouse provides adaptable five bedroomed accommodation and stands in rolling countryside with far reaching open views. In all the property extends to 10.8 acres including gardens, tennis court, paddocks, lakes and woodland.

The property comprises a 19th Century Farmhouse with extended accommodation to include a traditional barn. There are three principal reception rooms, five bedrooms, master en-suite, large kitchen and breakfast room, scullery, office and games room.

Externally there are electric gates to the front of the property. There is a brick and pantiled range of outbuildings comprising a double garage, single garage, workshop, stable and a professional hard court surfaced tennis court.

The property is located in a beautiful and naturally landscaped rural area of North Nottinghamshire, just 3.5 miles from Retford, and 20 miles from Newark. Main East Coast railway services are available from Retford and Newark, journey times from Newark Northgate to London King's Cross are usually just over 75 minutes. Access to the A1 trunk road is approximately 7 miles.

Standing on high ground, there are views as far as Lincoln Cathedral. The gardens are pleasant and easily maintained. There are enchanting walks through the woodland and around the lakes. There are two established plantations, 0.67 acre and some 3.8 acres of deciduous woodland.

The main house is traditionally built with red brick elevations under a pantiled roof and benefiting from a oil fired central heating system. The following accommodation is provided:-
